

In regards of CBA to proceed with their challenge o Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. If the banks are as friendly as our local Integra Bank employees, they would not need to make unwanted phone calls to individuals that do not want their unwanted phone calls.